Annual Dinner to Celebrate Dee Rosenwald's 90th Birthday

by Dee Dee Bowman and Roy Ziegler

For more than forty years, Dee Rosenwald has been an active member and director of the New Hope Historical Society. Today she serves as Director Emeritus, regularly contributing her perspective and ideas at Board meetings, as well as devoting her time for fund raising activities. Many people know her best for the Society's forty Annual Historical and Cultural Coach Tours that she has organized and conducted.

There is so much to hear about Dee Rosenwald's story. She has been a wife, mother, grandmother, artist, museum docent and creative cook. Dee is the teller of fascinating stories. She is a teacher, trip planner and keeper of local lore. And to top it all, she is a perfectly delightful person to be with.

Dee was not permitted to enroll in the British armed forces, so she joined the United States Army. During the war years, she experienced rationing and air raids and she has some hair-raising tales to tell of that era. She spent some time in France where she attended soirees hosted by Gertrude Stein and Alice B. Toklas. Dee served on General Dwight Eisenhower's staff, where she had an especially hilarious encounter with General George Patton.

After the war, Dee traveled by ship with the Army to the United States to be decommissioned. Eventually she settled in the New York area, working in publishing, and was married to a prominent fashion photographer with whom she had a son. She also spent many years studying art and developing her skills and talent as an artist.

The New Hope Historical Society will celebrate Dee's 90th birthday in grand style at the annual meeting and dinner to be held at Marsha Brown's popular restaurant in New Hope on November 17th beginning at 6:00 PM. Invitations are in the mail and we suggest that you respond quickly so you do not miss this wonderful celebration.

Dee was born in Kearney, New Jersey to English parents, and was raised and educated in England. Because she was born in the United States,

New Hope History Day

Celebrated 200th anniversary of Parry's Patent

On Saturday, May 29th, the New Hope Historical Society partnered with the New Hope-Solebury High School's advanced placement students to present the annual New Hope History Day.

Students tour with Dee Rosenwald

This year marked the two hundredth anniversary of Benjamin Parry's patent for machinery that he invented to preserve corn, grain and malt for overseas shipping thereby dramatically increasing foreign markets for local farmers. A copy of the patent that was signed by President James Madison was on display for the event. The students prepared exhibits to demonstrate some of the early inventions of the Industrial Revolution. New videos of the town's historic structures were shown and a walking tour of New Hope was conducted at 3:00 PM. Guided tours of Benjamin Parry's Georgian style mansion were also presented from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM.

All events were free and open to the public beginning at noon at the Parry Mansion. The programs enabled those attending to learn about New Hope's part in the early Industrial Revolution and its varied roles in the history of Bucks County over the past three hundred years.

The Society estimated the crowds attending History Day and touring the Mansion to reach approximately three hundred.

Presidents Message

The arrival of autumn is not just heralding signs of fall foliage, pumpkins and mums, it is the beginning of a new season for the Society. After a productive summer of meetings by the Nominating Committee, a new slate of Officers and Directors will be presented at the Annual Meeting on November 17th to be held at Marsha Browns. The Development Committee also met in our air conditioned office to prepare and send out the Annual Appeal request and search for Grants. With fall beckoning, another committee was preparing for the Annual Dinner, and phase one of the Annual Garden Tour 2011 went into motion. The drive for Membership never slows down and as you can see, despite not having summer events, The Parry family never sleeps.

November marks a milestone for me, personally, as I step down as President of the Society. The last two years have not only flown by but have been totally fulfilling for me. It has been an honor to serve as President and take responsibility for New Hope's most important treasure, The Parry Mansion. To gain the understanding of the respect that the community and the visitors have for the Mansion has been most satisfying. My biggest two assets however, remain the board of directors, who have never been so unified and directed, and the Executive Director, Deborah Lang, who works tirelessly for the success of the Society. My sincerest thanks go out to all of them. It has been two years of reaching a number of goals that I set and I intend to stay on the board to lend support to the next President and Board with hopes of seeing other goals achieved.

I want to thank the entire membership for all of the support you have given to the Society over the last year, not only as volunteers, but also for renewing your memberships and supporting the Annual Giving Fund. Your generous donations help to provide a strong foundation allowing us to better preserve the Mansion and also serve the community.

With that said, I look forward to greeting all of you at the Annual Meeting. The evening will be rather special not only introducing a new President and Treasurer, but we have also planned a few special moments to share as well.

My Best,
Edwin Hild, President

ANNUAL GARDEN PARTY

June 14th was hot and steamy with a threat of rain but that didn't stop our members from turning out in record numbers for the Annual Garden Party. While the Bob Egan duo entertained, guests enjoyed the delicious food and beer compliments of Triumph Brewing Co.

Guests arriving for the event.

Ilan Avizohar, Judy Newman, Edwin Hild, Bud Newman, Herb & Susan Sandor, Bruce Gangawher, Lynn Windholz, Dennis Mankin

Kathy Fernberger, David McShane, Happy Shipley, Mayor Larry Keller

The highlight of the event was when Mayor Larry Keller, turned auctioneer and the lively bidding began for the Dickens Dinner. This enchanting multi-course dinner with the finest accompanying wines for twelve guests will be catered by Chef Thom Smyth and his sous chef Ernie Bowman. Imagine dining in the Parry Mansion on Parry china while being served by Society Board Members in period dress and character. What an enchanting evening this will be! The successful bidders were Robert Facchina and Susan Lauyer of New Hope. Congratulations.

Claire Shaw was also a winner. She took home the Mantis Roto-Tiller and a long list of friends who want to borrow it!

Co-Chair Joe Knox, and Co-Chair Rick Sweeney, Patty Cosner, Officer Cory Beaugard, Jim Finn

Marylou & Charlie Huchet, Claire Donohue, Eleanor Miller, Dennis Shafer, Pat Shafer, Jack Donohue

Guests enjoyed a special performance by New Hope artists, Rachel Lancaster and Dylan Hurwitz; a fusion of classical music and modern hoop-dancing.

Several other members were recipients of our dining gift certificates which were generously donated by local restaurants as raffle prizes. A wonderful time was had by all.

40TH ANNUAL COACH TOUR TOOK A WALK ON WALL STREET

The fortieth annual coach tour visited the heart of the nation's financial center on Wall Street in Lower Manhattan on Wednesday, October 6th. Director Emeritus, Dee Rosenwald lead the tour assisted by New Hope Mayor Larry Keller. They have presented tours as a team for over two decades.

Trinity Church was the first stop. Then it was on to the Museum of American Finance and the Federal Hall National Memorial where George Washington took the oath of office becoming the first President of the U.S.. Then it was off to The Peking Duck House in Chinatown for a sumptuous banquet lunch.

The final stop was Pier 11 on the East River where everyone boarded a ferry boat for a scenic trip around Manhattan to Weehawken NJ where their coach was waiting. A wonderful day shared by all.

The tour then continued to the National Museum of the American Indian which houses the Smithsonian Museum's acclaimed Gustave Heye collection in the former Customs House. The collection represents the best of the native American culture as the objects displayed were chosen by tribal leaders. The fall show is titled. "A song for the Horse Nation."

Parry Relatives Connect via Internet Search

Brent and Joan Marston are new members of the Society and live in South Carolina. Isn't that a little ways to travel for our events you might ask? As it turns out Brent is a direct descendant of Rachael Randolph Parry, daughter of Oliver Randolph Parry, Benjamin's son. Brent and Joan were kind enough to make a trip to New Hope where Roy Ziegler and I met with them.

Gen. Randolph Parry AD 1865

and Joan shared stories. They also generously donated artifacts belonging to his family. Other items were lent to us for scanning and adding to our archives. We were delighted to meet with such a charming couple so well versed in history and in the Parry family. They even included a visit to several cemeteries along the way from SC to New Hope to complete their search for family ties.

Following a private tour of the Parry Mansion, provided by Roy sprinkled with a condensed history of the Parry Family, Bucks County and New Hope, Brent

We look forward to staying in touch with the Marston's and hope they will decide to revisit us during a future Society event.

Francis M. Curley Scholarship

The Historical Society established the scholarship seven years ago to honor Francis M. Curley. His numerous contributions fostered an appreciation of New Hope's unique history and ensured he will be remembered for his lasting impact on the New Hope community as a teacher, community leader and Member of the Society for many years.

Each year a one thousand dollar scholarship is awarded to an outstanding civic-minded senior attending the New Hope-Solebury High School. This student must also be committed to pursuing a formal education in Social Studies. This year's recipient was Maria DiGiovanni. She was chosen after demonstrating excellence in course work and community involvement. She is attending the University of Pittsburgh. Funding for the Francis Curley Scholarship program is obtained from the members of the New Hope Historical Society and from the general public. For information about the scholarship and how to contribute, call 215-862-5652.

The Archives Revealed

Found in the attic of Parry Mansion in New Hope is a treasure of antique documents. Contained in these pages are the stories of New Hope, its people and places.

I volunteered, earlier this spring, to try to make some sense of order with these beauties. (I now know why no one was ahead of me for the job). Though the work may be tedious it is also fascinating and exciting.

Buried in a box of old deeds and various repair bills I found this copy of an old poem. The copy itself is handwritten and thought to date from approximately 1850. The poem itself is an "Acrostic", which is a poem in which the first letter of each line spells out a person's name or a motto. The first letter of this one does not fit but the rest flows beautifully. The spelling and grammar is exact from the original. This particular one was addressed to Miss Jenny Paxson by Benjamin Parry (son of John Parry of Manland Manor, England) before their marriage in 1787. It is noted that it was probably written about the year 1785.

Who would have ever thought Benjamin was such a romantic!

IN MEMORIAM

John R Brillman, Jr. of New Hope March 17, 1938 – September 29, 2010

The Society and the New Hope-Solebury Community has lost a valued member.

John was the beloved husband of CeCe Brillman, son of the late John R. Sr. and Mary Brillman. A lifelong resident of New Hope and owner of John R. Brillman Landscape Nursery for more than 50 years, JR was a kind-hearted, nature-loving humanitarian. He was a historian, a walking Bucks County guidebook of everything from plants to surnames, and everything in-between. He had a fulfilling, productive and respectable career working to make our little corner of Bucks County more beautiful through landscaping.

John was a U.S. Army veteran. An avid outdoorsman he loved to fish and hunt. He was also a dedicated community volunteer.

President of the New Hope-Solebury Community Association, Director of the New Hope Auto Show, President of the Solebury Lions Club, member of the Edgar H. Denson Legion Post 79, Fifty-year member of the American Association of Nurseryman and PA Nursery Association. Also a member of the following clubs: The Elks Club, The Bucks County Farm Bureau, The Amwell Outdoors Gun Club, The Amwell Valley Sportsmen Club, The Lambertville Rod and Gun Club, and endowment member of the National Rifle Association.

John also is survived by his children, Mary Beth Brillman of Newtown, James Brillman of Buckingham and John R. Brillman III of Mount Jackson, VA.

John is resting at the Friends Cemetery in Solebury. Memorial contributions may be sent in John’s name to: Eagle Fire Co., P O Box 314, New Hope, PA 18938, or New Hope-Solebury Community Association, P O Box 62, New Hope, PA 18938, or Edgar H. Denson Post #79, P O Box 131, New Hope, PA 18938, or Solebury Lions Club, P O Box 15, New Hope, PA 18938.

From the Executive Directors Desk.....

On a very personal note: I would like to share a little with you about JR Brillman. I am honored to say this wonderful man was my close friend. He was truly like no other. While friends and family grieved we also shared stories and all had a common theme. JR gave so much to all of us. He taught us, nurtured us, gave us advice (via a story of course) and led by example. He always had time for us, with a giggle. We will miss him so. We will remember him always. We know he will not forget us either, not with that memory.

This will be the last newsletter before the holidays. Please remember to join us for the Spirited Tea on Sunday, December 5th from 4 to 7 pm and Victorian Christmas December 11th & 12th from 1 to 4 pm when the Parry Mansion will be looking spectacular adorned with period Christmas decorations.

The mansion will be closing for the season on Sunday November 28th. We have had a successful tour season in 2010. We expanded the tour hours until 5pm and hired two docents to bring our total to five. We are fortunate to have a very dedicated and competent staff, but would welcome additional volunteer docents who might be willing to help with tours for the 2011 season. Please give me a call if you or someone you know might be interested.

A special thank you!

A dedicated Society member, talented photographer, wife to Gene and mother to Morris, Wendy Gladston is devoting her spare time to the Archives. At this moment, she is cataloguing every item the Parry’s have left behind and we are so thankful for her and her digital notebook. In addition she has agreed to share her “finds” with us in a column in the newsletter. Her first is here on page 7. We can’t thank Wendy enough for her time and patience.

Also, remember if you have any “archive finds” please be sure to give us a call. Wendy will be more than happy to speak with you.

Best Regards, Deborah

Parry Mansion Docents Update

It is with great pleasure that we introduce you to our newest docents. Nichole Gerding describes herself as an enthusiastic gardener with a background in food history and open hearth cookery. We think she is a delight and are so grateful to have Nichole join us. We are looking forward to having her share her knowledge and experience with us. She is joined by Nick Kinsley who is a Senior at the New Hope-Solebury High School. He joined us through his AP History class and is President of the Senior class and involved in theatre. We feel fortunate that Nick has found time to include us in his very busy schedule.

We encourage all members to stop in and introduce yourself AND take a tour if it has been awhile since your last visit!

Coming Soon ! April 2011 SPEAKER SERIES

We are in the process of planning this year's Speaker Series.

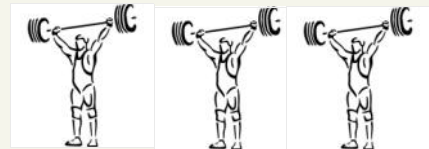

The committee would appreciate your suggestions on topics. Please email newhopehs@verizon.net or call 215-862-5652.

The Parry Mansion Looking Good!

A special thanks to the Super clean-up crew!

Edwin Hild, Steve Schaller and Hugh Marshall cleared out the debris and junk (yes, we had junk!) from the smoke house and the attic and hauled it away! Thanks guys! Great job!
